Cordell Hurst

cordellhurst@gmail.com
805.302.2710

OBJECTIVE: Internship or part time position in a computer science related field leading to a full time position.

EDUCATION:

Hunter College	Senior Year, Graduation May 2019
Major: Computer Science	Minor: Mathematics

RELATED COURSES:

Kotlin for Android	Advanced Networks & Cloud
Operating Systems	SQL/MySQL
Machine Learning	Computer Architecture

HONORS:

Phi Theta Kappa: honor society for two-year colleges	Global Ai Hackathon Winner: Greatest Social Impact Hack 5/17

SKILLS: C++ and Java proficient, familiar with Kotlin, Javascript, Node.js, Machine Learning, HTML/CSS, Windows/Mac OS/Linux and GitHub proficient, project & team coordination/participation, highly adaptive, experienced communicator

EXPERIENCE:

10/18 - Ongoing — Group Project — CS 360 Computer Architecture III
- Took lead creating a software simulator that runs assembly language-like programs by coordinating team and maintaining schedule of milestones
- Only team to accomplish all required standards and have working code throughout development schedule

6/18 – Ongoing — Self-Directed Projects — Udemy - Various
- Expanded knowledge outside of classroom in order to fill educational gaps in my BA program
- Chose front-side and back-side subjects: SQL, Kotlin, HTML/CSS, Javascript, Node.js, Network Security, Git/Github

2/10 – 8/14 — Manager — BR Guest Hospitality, New York
- Coordinated the service of up to 250+ employees with direct oversight of 100+ service staff, 320 seats, live entertainment, and $13M in annual sales
- Improved beverage costs by 3% through ongoing training programs including daily proficiency checks

LEADERSHIP: United States Marine Corps   Small Arms Technician (2111)

PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES: IEEE Computer Society